New EIS RACE Screen System Migration

Early Thursday, February 13, we will be migrating the new RACE screen to Production. Most of what Systems Operations needs to do will be completed prior to the system being brought up. Unfortunately, we must make table changes once EIS is brought up at 7:00 a.m.

Rather than ask you not to sign until we are finished, we will temporarily disable the APMA and the REAP screens. You will receive a spider if you attempt to access either of these screens while we are making our changes.

Another broadcast will be sent following our migration.

Thank you in advance for your patience.
